OGAM

Mission and Vision

Mission

As METU Center for Image Analysis (OGAM), to create synergy from the expertise existing on the automatic analysis of images in different academic units within the university and to create useful, efficient and sustainable scientific output and technological contributions at an international level.

Vision

To be positioned as the leading research center in the national level and being an internationally respected science, technology and solution center in image analysis and all related application areas.